On Saints and Holiness

"To be a saint is not a privilege of a few... all of us in baptism have the inheritance of being able to become saints. Sanctity is a vocation for everyone.
- Pope Francis

"Holiness consists simply in doing God's will, and being just what God wants us to be."
— St. Therese of Lisieux

All of us can attain to Christian virtue and holiness, no matter in what condition of life we live and no matter what our life work may be. - Saint Francis de Sales here is no surer way to know that one is a saint than to see him lead a holy life and yet suffer desolation, trials and tribulations.

-St. Louis Gonzaga

Summer Schedule: Beginning on Sunday, June 7 we will have a summer schedule. The Liturgy will be at 9:30 AM until the end of August.

Look of love: Jesus' gaze will change your life, pope says

VATICAN CITY (CNS) -- The gaze of Jesus can change a person's life just like it did with St. Peter, Pope Francis said. "He always looks at us with love. He asks us something, he forgives us and he gives us a mission," the pope said May 22 during his early morning Mass in the Domus Sanctae Marthae. Pope Francis suggested that members of the congregation welcome and receive Jesus in the Eucharist with the prayer, "Lord, you are here among us. Fix your gaze on me and tell me what I must do, how I must weep for my mistakes, my sins, and with what courage I must continue on the path you have traveled before me." The pope, who wakes up several hours before the 7 a.m. Mass to pray and prepare his homily, said he was struck that morning by the exchange of gazes in the day's Gospel, John 21:15-19, which includes Jesus, after the resurrection, asking Peter three times if he loves him. When Jesus first met his apostle, "Jesus fixed his gaze upon him and said, 'You are Simon, son of John; you will be called Peter,'" the pope said. "That was the first gaze, the gaze of mission" and Peter responded enthusiastically. Then, after Jesus had been arrested and Peter denied Jesus three times, he feels the gaze of Jesus again and "weeps bitterly," the pope said.

'Positio' for Father Peyton's cause now with Vatican congregation

EASTON, Mass. (CNS) -- Presentation of the "positio," or official position paper, on the life and holiness of Father Patrick Peyton to a Vatican congregation is the latest step in the sainthood cause of the Holy Cross priest. A May 18 statement issued by Holy Cross Family Ministries in Easton said the document was four years in the making and is the synthesis of a 6,000-page report completed by tribunals in the Archdiocese of Baltimore and 34 other dioceses around the world. "We are very pleased to see progress in Father Peyton's cause," said Holy Cross Father Wilfred Raymond. "Many people regularly tell me we need a 'saint for families' and that Father Peyton is the appropriate candidate." Father Peyton came to the United States from Ireland in 1928 when he was 19. Ordained in 1941, he was the founder of Holy Cross Family Ministries, which includes Family Rosary, Family Theater Productions, Father Peyton Family Institute and Family Rosary International.
His ministry produced more than 600 radio and television programs and 10,000 broadcasts. The priest also conducted rosary crusades for millions of people in dozens of countries.
