From Saints Peter & Paul

Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you. Be sober-minded; be watchful Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world. And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you. To him be the dominion forever and ever. Amen. ~ Saint Peter

If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.... ~ Saint Paul

Love is Our Mission – For it is not enough to say in words that we love, but we ought to give also proof of our deeds; for neither did He show love by words only, but by deeds also. St.
John Chrysostom. Love is a choice: our decision to want and to choose to do what is good for another. In the ups and downs of life – in our family, at work, school, and out in the world – it's not always easy to love. But Jesus' love for us, and the ultimate sacrifice He made on our behalf, makes it possible for us to love, even when it's difficult. Today, ask the Lord to give you the strength to love – then, Do It!

Mother says sidewalk counselor at abortion clinic 'saved my son's life'

MCALLEN, Texas (CNS) -- Linda was 24, pregnant and unmarried. "I was afraid of what my family would think, what everyone would think," she said. "So I decided that I would terminate my pregnancy." Linda, whose last name has been omitted to protect her privacy, went to an abortion clinic in McAllen for a consultation. "There were girls there who looked as young as 15," she said.
"It was very sad." The abortion clinic staff recommended Linda take the "abortion pill," two medicines -- mifepristone and misoprostol. "They told me that it was just an embryo and didn't even have a heartbeat," Linda told The Valley Catholic, newspaper of the Diocese of Brownsville. "They said after I took the pills, I would get my period." Linda was told to come back the next day so the abortion pill could be administered. When she returned, Ruben Rosales, a pro-life sidewalk counselor, approached her before she walked into the abortion clinic. "I don't even remember what I said to her," said Rosales, a parishioner at St. Jude Thaddeus Church in Pharr. "You have so little time to speak with them and you have to constantly pray and ask the Lord for the right words. We try to understand what they are feeling. Many feel that abortion is the only option and that her whole world is closing in around her, but we show them another way." Linda said: "Mr. Ruben invited me to go to the McAllen Pregnancy Center a few blocks away and that very day, I heard my son's heartbeat for the first time. I want them to know that their ministry is effective and that it is worth it.
Thanks be to God they were there for me that day. They saved my son's life."

The readings at the Divine Liturgy for next week are: Romans 12:6-14 and Matthew 9:1-8. Why not read ahead and meditate on these reading during the week so they will be more meaningful when you hear them on Sunday?
