From the Saints

The Lord remained silent before Pilate and Herod; He made no attempt to justify Himself. You must imitate His holy and wise silence when you see that your enemies accuse you, with every intention of certain conviction; they accuse only with the purpose of hiding their own evil intention under the guise of judgment. + St. Ignatius Brianchaninov

Do not claim to have acquired virtue unless you have suffered affliction, for without affliction virtue has not been tested. + St. Mark the Ascetic

To deny oneself means to give up one's bad habits; to root out of the heart all that ties us to the world; not to cherish bad thoughts or desires; to suppress every evil thought; not to desire to do anything out of self love, but to do everything out of love for God. + St. Innocent of Alaska

God loves us more than a father, mother, friend, or any else could love, and even more than we are able to love ourselves. + St. John Chrysostom Candy Sale! Our Christmas candy sale is underway. Brochures are in the back of the church where the bulletins are. Last day to order candy is November 8th. Please support the candy sale as it subsidizes the ECF program and is a nice financial benefit to our parish. If you like candy, buy a lot! If you don't like candy, buy some anyway and give it as a nice gift. Thanks to everyone who is involved in the candy sale and thanks in advance for your support of this fundraiser. Last day to order is November 11!

Sunday, November 11- Saint Michael's Day Celebration: Come and enjoy the company of your fellow parishioners on our patronal feast. There is a signup sheet to bring food items in the vestibule. It's important that we spend time together as a parish family so please try to make time to attend.

Thanks for your generosity to Father Yuri's family! St. Michael's collected $1043.00 and Saints Peter and Paul collected $185.00. May God bless you for your generosity!

The Building Fund collected $104.00 this week.

How the abbot Sisois taught a brother that the desire of vengeance separates a man from God.

There was a certain brother who had suffered an injury at the hands of another. Coming to the abbot Sisois, he explained the wrong which he had suffered, and then said, "My father, I for him with whom I was angry," he said, "I shall not in any way contend with him.
