

Men's Study Group

A Stream of Living Water: Elements of Holy Tradition A Reflection on Holy Tradition in the Byzantine Catholic Church and a Look at Several Significant Byzantine Catholic Traditions

Content Areas: 1. What is Holy Tradition? 2. The Bible: Inspired Word of God, 3. Format of the Bible, 4. Fathers of the Church, 5. Creeds and Councils, 6. Liturgy and Iconography

Facilitator

Steve Mattern

Text

*A Stream of Living Water:
An Introduction to Holy Tradition*

A readable 100-page book

Dates/ Times: 7:00-9:00 p.m.

Four Wednesday sessions

- Wednesday, September 27
- Wednesday, October 11
- Wednesday, October 25
- Wednesday, November 1

Location

Rosmini House
2327 West Heading Avenue
Peoria.

Contact

For more information and to reserve a book

smmattern@elmnet.net
(309) 446-3271

Directions to Rosmini House

About 5 minutes from I-74

From I-74W

- Take exit 91A (for University Street)
- Turn right off ramp onto North University Street
- At third light, turn right onto West Main Street
- Pass Laura Bradley Park and Farmington Road on right
- Turn right to stay on West Main Street (University Shop on corner)
- West Main Street becomes West Heading Avenue (past Saint Joseph's Cemetery on right)
- Rosmini House is on right just past The Cross Baptist Church

From I-74E

- Take exit 91 (for University Street)
- Turn right off ramp onto North University Street
- At second light, turn right onto West Main Street
- Pass Laura Bradley Park and Farmington Road on right
- Turn right to stay on West Main Street (University Shop on corner)
- West Main Street becomes West Heading Avenue (past Saint Joseph's Cemetery on right)
- Rosmini House is on right just past The Cross Baptist Church